

25X1A

CLASSIFICATION ~~SECRET~~

|                       |   |                         |       |
|-----------------------|---|-------------------------|-------|
| COUNTRY               | East Germany  | REPORT NO.              |       |
| TOPIC                 | Organization and Officers of the Billeting Administration of the Construction and Billeting Department at the Ministry of the Interior. |                         |       |
| 25X1A EVALUATION      |   | 618434                  | 25X1C |
| 25X1C DATE OF CONTENT |   | 26 March 1954           |       |
| DATE OBTAINED         |   | DATE PREPARED           |       |
| REFERENCES            |   |                         |       |
| PAGES                 | 2   | ENCLOSURES (NO. & TYPE) |       |
| REMARKS               |   |                         |       |

25X1X

25X1A

1. [ ] Willy Mayer, formerly state secretary and now KVP major general, was chief of the construction and billeting administrations at the Ministry of the Interior (MDI). Mayer, who also was Deputy Minister of the Interior and whose office was located at 26/27 Mauer Strasse in Berlin W 3, controlled the billeting, construction and finance administrations and the Berlin projecting office.
2. The billeting administration (VQN) was organized into the headquarters which was staffed by Lieutenant Colonel Johannes Rochlitzer, chief; Major Mueller (fnu), deputy; Lieutenant Tanner (fnu), adjutant; Lieutenant Colonel Pfennig (fnu), political officer; and Lieutenant Berger (or Burges) (fnu), state security service officer; the 1st Department which was staffed by SED comrade Hermann (fnu), chief, Captain of the Sea Police Wohlfeil (fnu), staff officer and deputy; Major Fringer (fnu), staff officer, actually detached to "Seehaus", Junior Lieutenant Hans-Joschim Gerhard (fnu), staff officer, and civilian employees Taubert (fnu), planning staff officer, and Hamann (fnu), staff officer; the 2d Department which was staffed by Major Thomas (fnu), chief, actually in charge of the "Seehaus" special headquarters, Senior Lieutenant Hartmann (fnu), deputy, Captain Freitag (fnu), staff officer, actually detached to "Seehaus", Mueller (fnu), and Sohr (fnu), architects and staff officers, and Wetzel (fnu), Hofmann (fnu), Strubelt (fnu), and Klonower (fnu), technical engineers and staff officers; the 3d Department which was staffed by Major Erwin Hack, chief, and Lieutenant Ensign Adam (fnu), and Construction Engineer Haertl (fnu), staff officers; the 4th Department which was staffed by Captain Bickelhaupt (fnu), chief, Captain Fenn (fnu), deputy, Senior Lieutenant Klein (fnu), forest staff officer, Senior Lieutenant Modes (fnu), Lieutenant Boehme (fnu), and Lieutenant Mechler (fnu), staff officers; the 5th Department which was staffed by Senior Lieutenant Weiser (fnu), chief, Lieutenant Antrag (fnu), deputy, and Lieutenant Neumann (fnu), coal staff officer; the 6th Department which was staffed by Lieutenant Raabe (fnu), chief, Lieutenant Karlies (fnu), deputy, and Lieutenant Fortrich (fnu), staff officer; the 7th Department which was staffed by Captain Krausch (fnu), chief, Captain Baer (fnu), deputy, and Lieutenant Koehler (fnu), staff officer; and the

CLASSIFICATION ~~SECRET~~

SECRET

25X1A

- 2 -

organization department which was staffed by Captain of the State Security Service Riemer (fnu), chief, and Senior Lieutenant Friedrich (fnu), deputy. Missions assigned to the organization department included distribution of mail; preparation of indoctrination schedules and instructions for Sohr (fnu), seminary director; and jurisdiction of all personnel affairs of the billeting administration including appointments and screening.

25X1A

☐ Comment. Mayer previously was State Secretary in the Ministry of Reconstruction.

SECRET